

PAP Supervisor

Job Code: QGMD/PR1001S

Application Deadline: 1st March 2021

Job Role

Responsibilities:

- To maintain waste below 2% all over the year
- Control PAP technicians, PAP Operators, and workers performance
- Validate all printing, assembly & packaging machines
- Ensure all machines are running with validated parameters
- Responsible for Boxing area & label operators or Boxing leaders
- Requesting raw materials as per production work orders
- Ensure that all machines and manpower working under controlled environment & governed by full implementation of GMP
- Achieving high degree of uniformity for all his produced products
- Properly segregate nonconforming products record it in the in-process waste and reject from cleanroom accordingly
- Efficiently supervise and maintain high standard cleanliness of injection machines, moulds and materials by full implementation of GMP
- Full Implementation of the General production plan prepared by planning officer & approved by Factory engineer and Operations manager
- Monitoring the raw materials of Clean Room Production machines and making sure that the materials used are in proper condition according to specification and production plan
- Prepare work request for maintenance if any problems or breakdown in any machines that may arise before or during operation

Experience / Education:

- Engineering Degree / Diploma in Electro Mechanic / Electrical / Electronic / Mechanical / Industrial
- 4 to 6 years' experience